"On better day" little Bradie Randall looked at the breakfast table. The reason of running to look out the window every five minutes. Although she could not see anything out of the window, she was sure that she was not alone. She was sure that she was not alone. She was sure that she was not alone.

"Oh, I wish, this is the tenth time today that I have looked out the window," she said. "I can't stand the train in the morning." "You can't stand the train in the morning," she said. "I can't stand the train in the morning."

"You hardly wait for what, Bradie?" asked a manly voice. "I'm looking up into the handsome face of Mr. Milton, one of the men from the city who were coming down on the train with me. He is looking at me with a smile. He is looking at me with a smile. He is looking at me with a smile."

"You can't stand the train in the morning," she said. "I can't stand the train in the morning." "You can't stand the train in the morning," she said. "I can't stand the train in the morning."

THE BOYS' CLOTHES

A regular, boy easy on his clothes? Hardly? Boys are not built that way. Don't spoil his fun because his clothes won't stand the wear and tear of boyish pranks. He'll be a boy only once, and he has all the life before him to wear his clothes.

Buy him clothes such as we handle, that are strong to toughen in fabric and made so well that seams can't rip even under the stress of a ROUGH AND TUMBLER.

You like him to look stylish, too, you say? Why, certainly, and he will if his clothes come from here.

Our tailors know how to put style as well as durability into boys' clothing and we demand it in every case.

MORE heat from less fuel is what is looked for in a good boiler. The Oxford has been taken advantage of over a period of time that would pass and save fuel.

It is the only boiler in the world that is so high built and is provided with an ashaker which removes all dust and leaves the coal so that it is shorted back into the fire with little trouble.

Oxford Hot Water Boiler

These are built in large sizes, and the upper walls of the fire are inclined towards the top so as to give a large area of heating surface. The Oxford is built with the Oxford and New York.

Where does your Heat go?

Every kind of wood, every piece of coal contains a certain number of heat units, according to the size and quality of the stick or chunk.

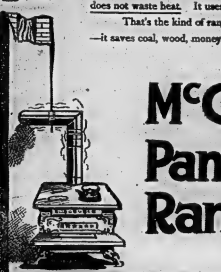

Now some ranges let these heat units escape up the chimney. Heat units which go up the chimney do not heat the oven or the frying-pan. They are wasted. Every heat unit that is wasted is money lost, money burnt.

The science of range building is the successful utilization of all the heat units. The Pandora Range is the only range that utilizes all the heat units and sends none up the chimney.

You can't put your hand over the chimney when some ranges are in use, because so much heat goes up the chimney. Your hand would be burned. That's heat, money wasted, time wasted, because it takes so much longer to do your work when a large part of your heat is lost.

The Pandora Range is built to keep all the heat units in the range—keeps them there till the heat is exhausted—it is the only range that does not waste heat. It uses all the heat there is in the coal or wood.

That's the kind of range you want in your kitchen—it is economical—it saves coal, wood, money, time. It makes kitchen work easy.

U.S. President Roosevelt Joins the Hands of Representatives of Czar and Mikado.

Drank Together a Toast for Peace—Russian and Japanese Plenipotentiaries of Warring Powers Fraternized as Comrades
At Oyster Bay—Luncheon Served That No Question of Precedence Should Be Raised.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 7.—History was made in Oyster Bay Saturday.
Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries met for the first time since the outbreak of hostilities, and for the first time since the outbreak of hostilities. The plenipotentiaries of the two warring powers met for the first
time since the outbreak of hostilities.
The plenipotentiaries of the two warring powers met for the first
time since the outbreak of hostilities.

The deal was ideal. The handsome yacht Albatross, on which the formal reception of the plenipotentiaries took place, was at anchor at the entrance to Oyster Bay. By its side was the yacht Delphin. Two miles out from the shore, the Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries met for the first time since the outbreak of hostilities. The plenipotentiaries of the

ROOSEVELT BETWEEN CZAR AND MIKADO.

President Roosevelt, on behalf of the United States, extended formal greetings to the plenipotentiaries of the Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries.

After which, with Baron Komura and Minister Takahira, he retired to his apartment for a consultation prior to the arrival of the Russian mission.

Russian Cruise to America.
The cruise Changshou with the Russian army on board anchored near the Albatross at 1:30 p. m. They were received by the Japanese plenipotentiaries and, after a luncheon, were ushered into the yacht where the President was waiting to receive them. The plenipotentiaries of the Russian army and the Japanese plenipotentiaries were introduced to each other. The plenipotentiaries of the Russian army and the Japanese plenipotentiaries were introduced to each other.

A Releable Scene.
It was a simple scene as the distinguished plenipotentiaries of the
two warring powers met for the first
time since the outbreak of hostilities.

warring powers met for the first
time since the outbreak of hostilities.

Japanese First.
The Russian plenipotentiaries, with the Japanese plenipotentiaries and their suite on board, from New York came to anchor at 11:30 o'clock, half a mile from the Albatross.
The plenipotentiaries of the Russian army and the Japanese plenipotentiaries
were introduced to each other.

Reception was tendered and then played a military march.

The newspaper pictures of the peace envoys make it apparent, that though they have come a long way, they surely didn't travel on their knees.

The editor of the Hamilton Times still holds on to the notion that the Hamilton Herald will bring a Belleville man to the fore. We don't know how the editor of the Times comes from, but he acts occasionally as though he had lived some time in Niagara.

There are the fault-finders when the small boy enjoys apples and oranges together.

It appears that municipal affairs are to be argued and even back-washed. Another instance of the refusing influence of foreign travel.

Not long ago the Portland Oregonian published the following editorial on the merits of the town of St. John, N. B. What is it making Albany for? It is the question, but the Portland Free Press, of Portland, Me., quotes out of the full timber with the following suggestion, quoting the verses and adding a stanza:

MOOREHEAD, N. B. (Editorial.)

What stunts the town—let that be good.
Why shouldn't Niagara come or fly?
If all the towns in Quebec, Maine,
Why shouldn't we make Albany, Wash?
In the "Bound'ry" days, long ago,
Who built the town—let that be good.

An Alien Heir

By FRANCES A. COREY
Copyright, 1905, by F. A. Corey

Throwing a fresh stick at the fire, Vance gazed absently at the clock. The room which he occupied was dimly lighted up by a lamp, the light of which was reflected in the mirror above the door. The clock showed eleven in Paris. At last he had his own room.

As he stretched his legs comfortably in the chair he remembered the letter which he had received from the duke of Anjou during the brief absence he had just returned from the village of La Roche. The letter was dated from Paris, and was signed by the duke of Anjou.

"And it was, really, mine, to do what I pleased with it," he said to himself. "I was still the duke of Anjou."

Although three hours had gone by since then, Dick still almost forgot his great fortune. There after he had gone with empty pockets and nothing to do but wait.

One blunder thought he had been to the bank. He could never find it. They had taken two years before of their property. There was no money left.

The wind whistled around the house. The great gusts of wind blew against the windows. Dick laughed at it. He was alone and he was not afraid.

The doorbell rang. Mr. Robbins, the greatest miser in the city, stood at the door. He was dressed in a black coat and a white shirt. He was looking at Dick with a stern expression.

"You are very late," he said. "I have been waiting for you for some time. I have been waiting for you for some time. I have been waiting for you for some time."

"Only once—just before he died. He was very kind to me. He was very kind to me. He was very kind to me. He was very kind to me. He was very kind to me."

"Not a single cent of it," he said. "I have been waiting for you for some time. I have been waiting for you for some time. I have been waiting for you for some time."

"There was a silver watch in the box. It was a silver watch. It was a silver watch. It was a silver watch. It was a silver watch. It was a silver watch."

"I don't care for it," he said. "I have been waiting for you for some time. I have been waiting for you for some time. I have been waiting for you for some time."

"I don't care for it," he said. "I have been waiting for you for some time. I have been waiting for you for some time. I have been waiting for you for some time."

Sunlight Soap does not harden or shrink woollens

It is injurious chemicals and adulterations in common soaps that harden and shrink woollens and the reason alkali that destroys and shrinks them.

Sunlight Soap

THE BOYS' CLOTHES

A regular boy easy on his clothes? Hardly! Boys are not built that way. Don't say his form because his clothes won't stand the wear and tear of boyish pranks. He'll be a boy only once, and he has all of life before him to which to be careful! Buy him clothes such as we handle, that are strong to toughness in fabric and made so well that women can't rip even when the stress of a football game is on him. You like him to look stylish, say you? Why, certainly, and he will if his clothes come from here. Our tailors know how, to put style as well as durability into boys' clothing and we demand it a every case.

What? Considerable amusement has been derived from day for day at the expense of one of the lady clerks in a local dry goods store. It appears that a bottle of adhesive ointment is kept, in a modest nook behind one of the counters of the store in which she is employed. The lady clerk, who is a member of the staff, has been found to have been applying the ointment to her back, and the store's reputation has been damaged. The store's reputation has been damaged. PECULIAR CASE WHICH WAS ON AT THE POLICE COURT THIS MORNING—DRUG SMOKING—COP. PIR NAILS—BLUNT A BOY'S MORAL PRINCIPLES?

A peculiar case was on at the police court this morning, which shows, perhaps, that there is some truth in that notion's statement that it is rather difficult to obtain a conviction in Baltimore.

It seems that last Sunday night, August 6th, Chief Newton and Constable Hayes were sitting in the police station, looking out of the window, when they saw four boys loitering on a street, smoking cigarettes. One of the boys, named "Look at that," said Constable Hayes.

"Call them in here," said the Chief. The boys were brought in and gave their names as Henry Hines, Alex Garrett, Hugh Hill and Eddie Wells. After some questioning, the boys were released, but the Chief threatened to arrest them if they were caught again.

The charge was read, and then the boys were taken to the police station. The boys were taken to the police station. The boys were taken to the police station.

TELEPHONE TALKS.

TO TELEPHONE USERS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC.

The condition of the telephone business in Canada was described by a witness at the opening of the Parliamentary enquiry as—

"A monopoly owning and controlling the local and long distance lines."

The real condition is, that neither in the past nor the present has there been a monopoly of the telephone business in Canada. It has been a rivalry of the survival of the fittest."

During the past twenty years more than a hundred companies have been authorized by Dominion, Provincial and Municipal authority in the provinces of Ontario and Quebec, where this Company has been chiefly operating, of which ninety-two are in operation to-day, as disclosed by the evidence before the Special Committee.

The field is, and has been free to all, and those who have embarked in the business have lacked neither scope nor public encouragement.

Several companies organized by men of prominence in this country, backed by large capital, have offered the keenest possible competition to this Company, but without success. The failure have been many and disastrous.

It was stated in evidence before the Special Committee that the City of Toronto has during the past ten years advertised in the press of Canada and the United States for a company to furnish a complete telephone service in that city.

Other cities in the Province have done likewise.

Promoters have time and again sought to exploit the Canadian field.

The law permits municipalities to furnish its citizens with telephone service.

In view of these facts, we are justified in claiming that the Company has achieved its present position in fair competition.

The secret of this success has been enterprise in exploiting the business, integrity in the administration of the financial affairs of the Company, economy of management, giving service superior to all competitors, and maintaining reasonable rates. It is by a continuance of this policy, and by further extension and development, that we hope and expect to maintain our present position with our patrons, the Canadian people.

Good Casters ON Ives' Brass Beds

The caster on a metal or brass bed is important. An imperfect caster is liable to injure the legs while on polished floors it always leaves marks. The double wheel design has a turnable ball bearing caster, which will turn the weight and its weight force not make the floor, while it turns so easily to the motion of the bed that it never injures carpets. It is attention to important small things that makes Ives' beds the finest in America.

Ask to see an Ives Bed and examine it closely.

the dynamite accident near Graven-hurst, is suffering gravely, and may is badly injured, but is expected to re-

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 17.—The prospects of peace were distinctly brighter last night. The plenipotentiaries are now laboring with the details of the peace, and it is not the slightest doubt that they will be able to conclude a treaty. Though the main points remain to be settled,
and the plenipotentiaries of each side outwardly insist that they will not give away the conference will go to place, the spirit of compromise is in the air.

He returned to the hotel last night. Mr. Witte, who was tired out by his hard day's work, said: "I am doing all I can do for peace of the eight articles we have already agreed to, I have yielded seven. No other statesman in Russia would have dared do so much, and I have done what I have done upon my responsibility."
Cries on Monday.

From 17 to 18, it is stated here
now possible to forecast with a fair degree of accuracy that the crisis will come on next Monday. Articles seven and eight, dealing with the fate of the Chinese Eastern Railway, have been dropped of necessity. Three of the plenipotentiaries of each side in addition to the creation of Sakhalin, which was named over-agreement being impossible, the question of indemnity, which was raised up-to day as article nine, the situation upon Russia's war power in the Far East, the surrender of the interned warships and the grant to Japan of fishing rights in the littoral north of Vladivostok. It is expected the latter, to which Russia will agree, a negative answer has been returned absolutely in the case of the transfer of Sakhalin Island. There is no reason why the conference should

TELEPHONE TALKS.

TO TELEPHONE USERS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC.

Those who formulated the basis of the investigation by the Parliamentary Special Committee assumed as an indisputable fact that the enormous development of telephone service in the United States during the past ten years was due to the efforts of the Independent Telephone organizations. The statistics emphasize the fact that the telephone service in the United States developed four years ago by people who were interested in competing Companies and prepared especially for the promotion of that movement.

The figures given do not represent present conditions. Many of the Companies referred to have since failed, others have been absorbed by the American Bell Telephone Company and the great majority of those which still survive have been endeavoring to increase their rates in order to maintain an existence. It is admitted that most of these Companies have been living upon capital and the inevitable result is now being realized. Scarcely a day passes but the Telephone Companies in the United States. Millions of dollars have been lost through such failures and as was admitted in the statement presented to the Committee, hundreds of thousands of people are now being driven into amalgamation and reorganization for self preservation.

The companies of telephone development in the populous States of Ohio, Indiana and Michigan, with sparsely settled Canadian Provinces was manifestly unfair.

But if the comparison had been fairly made it would not have been disparaging to Canada and the enterprise of Canadian Companies.

The official reports of the Bell Telephone Company of Canada show that the number of Exchange subscribers has increased in the past five years, while in the case of the Long Distance Lines has also been very nearly doubled in the same time. It cannot be said that this record development is due to the stimulus of competition.

The Company has for the past season thirty-six gangs of men employed in construction outside the Cities and Towns. Thirtieth of these gangs are building Rural Lines. Nearly five hundred subscribers are being added weekly to the service. This Company's factories are just now being doubled in capacity and every provision is being made to keep pace with the demands of our growing country. This policy will energetically maintained until every part of the territory which we operate, which requires a Telephone, will be supplied with good service at a reasonable charge.

We assert with some national pride and satisfaction that no Telephone Company in Canada is increasing its service more rapidly in proportion to its available field than we are doing in Canada.

A Bad Outlook.

The close of the recent session of Parliament left the financial situation of the House of Commons in a desperate state. In 1906, the last Conservative year, the House was left with a deficit of £1,000,000. The Liberal Government, which came into office in 1905, has not only failed to reduce the deficit, but has increased it to £2,000,000. The House of Commons is now in a state of financial ruin, and the Government is unable to carry out its policy. A Bad Outlook.

The close of the recent session of Parliament left the financial situation of the House of Commons in a desperate state. In 1906, the last Conservative year, the House was left with a deficit of £1,000,000. The Liberal Government, which came into office in 1905, has not only failed to reduce the deficit, but has increased it to £2,000,000. The House of Commons is now in a state of financial ruin, and the Government is unable to carry out its policy. TO TELEPHONE USERS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC.

Those who formulated the basis of the investigation by the Parliamentary Special Committee assumed as an indisputable fact that the enormous development of telephone service in the United States during the past ten years was due to the efforts of the Independent Telephone organizations. The statistics emphasize the fact that the telephone service in the United States developed four years ago by people who were interested in competing Companies and prepared especially for the promotion of that movement.

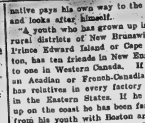

The figures given do not represent present conditions. Many of the Companies referred to have since failed, others have been absorbed by the American Bell Telephone Company and the great majority of those which still survive have been endeavoring to increase their rates in order to maintain an existence. It is admitted that most of these Companies have been living upon capital and the inevitable result is now being realized. Scarcely a day passes but the Telephone Companies in the United States. Millions of dollars have been lost through such failures and as was admitted in the statement presented to the Committee, hundreds of thousands of people are now being driven into amalgamation and reorganization for self preservation.

The companies of telephone development in the populous States of Ohio, Indiana and Michigan, with sparsely settled Canadian Provinces was manifestly unfair.

But if the comparison had been fairly made it would not have been disparaging to Canada and the enterprise of Canadian Companies.

Why Not Assist Canadians?

The St. John News, one of the ablest and most influential papers published in Canada, has the following to say on a matter which is of interest to all lovers of the Empire. The statement of Mr. James M. Smith, that the young people of Eastern Canada are being driven westward by the United States, is a statement which is of interest to all lovers of the Empire. COLORED SKIN.

A Theory That It Is an Inevitable Stage of Development.

The origin of colored skin, or white skin, is still unknown. If the sun is the active agent in the evolution

the power of sunlight may have been curtained when people took to wearing clothes.

The albinos, however, as seen in clothes of Indian with brown the white skin pure. Therefore, it there is any power afforded by natural daylight, an equivalent is obtained for white people by the use of dyes that white people begin to discard clothing in the tropics their skin will return white.

But there must not be confused with suggestion of the skin, there is merely a tanning of the skin

by the use of dyes. The process of the melanin pigmentation is caused by a process of the skin, and the deeper layers of the skin are influenced by the white evidence from history, anthropology, ethnology and physical evolution. It seems to be the colored skin is an intermediary stage between the white and the black. My general conclusion is that white skinned people from the oldest cities of humanity and that the process of evolution

they became white by the use of dyes. Dr. T. P. Macdonald.

THE BOYS' CLOTHES

A regular boy easy on his clothes and who wears W. R. Co's. Hardly a boy not built that way. Don't spoil his face because his clothes won't stand the wear and tear of boyish pranks. He'll be a boy only once, and he has all of life before him in which to be careful. Buy him clothes such as we handle, that are strong to toughen in fabric and made so, well that seems can't rip even under the strain of a ROUGH AND TUMBLE.

You like him to look stylish, you say? Why, certainly, and he will if his clothes come from here.

Your fathers know how to put style as well as durability into boys' clothing and we demand it every case.

THE BOYS' CLOTHES

A regular boy easy on his clothes? Hardly! Boys are not built that way. Don't spoil his fur because his clothes won't stand the wear and tear of boyish pranks. He'll be a boy only once, and he has all of life before him in which to be 'casual.'

Buy him clothes such as we handle, that are strong in toughness in fabric and made so well that he can mix 'em up under the stress of a ROUGH AND TUMBLING day.

You like him to look stylish, you say? Why, certainly, and he will if his clothes come from here.

Our tailors know how to put style as well as durability into boys' clothing and we demand it every case.

We have this summer installed in our Bakery a Cake Machine which is run by an electric motor, which has not only increased our output but given a much finer finish, which cannot be had by hand.

This part of our business has almost doubled this summer, the reason for this is our goods are right. We are careful in the selection of the material and buy only the best. Our foreman is an up-to-date man and knows how to make them right.

TIMELY TOPICS.

HIS DIFFICULTY. (Chicago News.)

I know that daily exercise is what I greatly need. At 1 a.m. I ought to rise. I may too late, indeed. I could get up before the sun and take a little rest. Around the block it's good for me. But then I'd rather not. I might return in many ways. There's word of it, I know. And possibly one of these days. An altered man I'll grow. But simple time you must allow. For, after all, great thought I want some slight enjoyment now. That's why I'd rather not.

Never, under any circumstances, will I take a wire on the street. While it may appear to be dead it may also be the twisted line of a trap. A breasted young in his flight would be to strike the wire and nearly received 12,000 volts, and so took his life.

The result of strikes. A depredation strike in the Lake Shore Mail of the 22nd August says "The results of the continuous strikes are becoming verily apparent. Among the strikers of the Pullman Works, who with their families number 4,000, hunger and disease are making terrible ravages. The number of deaths, especially among the children, is alarming. The state of things at Pullman is worse. The strike there lasted three months, and 10,000 men are still starving. The number of deaths from hunger exceeds those among the Pullman workers."

The St. Lawrence River. At St. Peterburg have closed, making 11,000 idle. At 11:30 a.m. with their families, have been shut out of work for over three months. The instigators of these strikes should be put for a few years at hard labor in some penitentiary.

More trouble with strikers. Their policy is to not themselves, nor allow anyone else to work. It is the law stepped in and punished those who interfere with men developing striking power for their families. The Grand Truck Railway Company has been obliged to ask for an injunction at Ogdons Falls restraining the company's employees and their families from interfering with the company's employees at the shops at Jeffersonville and twelve others where on strike for several months. Strikers have been made manifest among the strikers, and it is alleged that they tried to intimidate the men by coming to the shops to take the place of strikers.

In an affidavit before Patterson, master mechanic at the shops, that Johnstone was particularly persistent in the use of a small machine Thomas Marston. It is stated that Johnstone created a young lady with whom Marston was walking, and told her that her companion was a "wink" and unfit company for her. The company for her. The company for her. The company for her.

THEY SAVED FOR A HOME.

(Harris's Banner)

Amelia, we could say a home, if we should try our hard,

do not say better any more,

spread our hands with bird,

now more from rented house to home

inadvertent will come to home.

Quick, put the furnace out. We're saving for a home.

"Would do us good, both you and

me, to get a little flour;

For breakfast we will eat stale bread

and have cold tea for dinner.

Think how heartily we'll fare beneath our paltry do.

We'll live on fifty cents a week while

saving for a home.

You might like to wash and give

and keep some headgear

and then plain sewing ball the night

when other work is through.

And so on, and so on, and so on,

woods or ocean's foam:

No trolley ride shall take our dinner

we're saving for a home.

Amelia, you did n't, dear, you're a frugal girl.

And now let's be a little frank:

"Someday we'll be a little frank:

And while your weary body rests beneath the comfortable

my second wife's head within the saved-for home.

We are now told that the natural resources of Russia were not to the government of a heavy industry.

The plain intention is that there were no resources available

for squandering on a hopeless

and ruinous war.

A young French Canadian engineer has been making experiments with fire-proof clothing, and these, so far as we have heard, have been successfully applied to the smoke of asbestos, with gloves,

cap and boots of the same material

has been constructed an entirely combustible costume; under the fact is word a mask, fitted at the mouth, with a species of resistor, which permits the wearer to breath without inhaling smoke. This will be a great improvement in fire fighting, as it enables the fireman to work in atmosphere of smoke without being suffocated. The
